Negroes Who Were Strung Up Were
With Others, Taken to Greensboro, Charged With Murder of Family.

Chicago, Aug. 7.—President O. Stensland of the Milwaukee Avenue State bank, will probably be arrested as soon as he enters Chicago or can be found. Bank Examiner Jones, who closed the bank, said Mr. Stensland surely had guilty knowledge of the looting of the bank. The 22,000 depositors are gradually losing hope of receiving the $4,200,000 they entrusted to Stensland's care.

Detectives are now seeking Cashier Henry W. Herring, an alleged embezzler. Detective Cannon, who has a warrant for Herring's arrest, has information to the effect that the missing cashier is in Detroit. "I secured this information from reliable sources. Herring left for Detroit Saturday night," said Cannon. "His destination, I understand, is Canada."

Police in Detroit have been communicated with and detectives have taken up the search for Herring in earnest.

There was a crowd of several hundred working people around the bank Tuesday morning. Notwithstanding the doors were closed and there were no prospects of recovering funds, they stood for hours in a drizzling rain.

Police were called for to guard the bank. The call for the police was caused by fear that depositors and their friends would storm the bank and cause a riot when rumors that the contents of some of the safety deposit vaults had been tampered with. Persons with money in the vaults are said to have found their savings gone. These rumors originated in the butcher shop of Otto Balura, Marshfield avenue and Cornelia street. Balura said his sister had $200 in the vaults and when she went to get it the money was gone. Other stories of alleged tampering with contents of boxes were circulated through the crowd and helped excite the bank's patrons. Later Assistant Chief of Police Schuettler with Inspector Shippy and Bank Examiner Jones went to Justice Severson and asked him to issue a warrant for the arrest of President Stensland. The charge in the complaint asking for issuance of warrant is fraud. Justice Severson was not inclined to issue the warrant and they returned to the bank empty handed. It was said, however, that the warrant would be issued later by Justice Severson or some other justice.

Assistant Chief of Police Schuettler personally took charge of the police guarding the bank. He soon sent a requisition to Chief Collins for more policemen. A large number of additional men were promptly ordered to the vicinity.

The following message has been sent broadcast over the country by Inspector Shippy: "Arrest for embezzlement Henry W. Herring, cashier of Milwaukee Avenue State bank. Complainant is Milwaukee Avenue State bank, Carpenter street and Milwaukee avenue. Forty to forty-five years old, six feet two inches tall, 275 pounds, stout build, dark complexion, chestnut hair, dark brown mustache, light suit. He is a good dresser. Send all information to Chief Collins."

It was learned that the speculations of bank's funds began before the year 1901. At the beginning of that year a shortage of $250,000 is now said to have existed. It is also learned that Theodore Stensland now holds the power of attorney from his father. The son is alleged to have been further authorized by Stensland, Sr., to dispose of all property, including real estate belonging to him (the father) so as to make good as far as possible speculations.

Members of clearing house committee expressed the belief that Cashier Herring and President Stensland are now in Canada. A rumor that Theodore Stensland had also disappeared grew out of his failure to keep an appointment with the police department and a search began.

Judge Brentance of the superior court appointed John C. Fetzer receiver for the closed bank. A bill of complaint filed in court alleges mismanagement by officials.

TOO MUCH LIQUOR.

Donner Dead, Wife Held at Witness,
Campbell Charged With Murder.

New York, Aug. 7.—Thomas Donner of the Williamsburg section of Brooklyn is dead, his neighbor, William Campbell, is under arrest charged with homicide, and Donner's wife is held as a witness. The charge against Campbell was made by Mrs. Donner, who told the police that Campbell killed her husband with an axe. She said that Campbell, her husband and herself had been drinking together and that the quarrel which resulted in Donner's death was an outgrowth of their indulgence in liquor.

Salisbury, N. C., Aug. 7.—A mob of 3,000 men entered the jail just before 11 o'clock Monday night and taking Nease, Gillespie and Dillingham, three of the six negroes charged with the murder of the Lyster family at Barber Junction July 13, to a baseball park, lynched the two. The other three negroes were taken later by officers to Greensboro.

The mob began gathering at sundown. Mayor Boyden promptly ordered the saloons closed, and with other prominent citizens, United States Senator Overman, Judge Long, who was holding the special term of court to try the negroes, and Solicitor Hammer, gathered on the jail steps and addressed the crowd. There were howls and cat calls from the mob, but for a time there was no move. The mob lacked a leader. While citizens were appealing to the mob two men slipped through the crowd and were entering the jail with hammers. They were discovered and arrested. The mob continued its demonstrations, but there was still no concerted movement. About 9 o'clock Mayor Boyden called upon the local militia for aid. They assembled quickly, but were supplied with only blank cartridges, having orders to shoot to kill. Fireman McLendon of Charlotte, a Southern railway employe, was shot in the stomach by a bullet, said to have been fired by a member of the mob. He was fatally wounded. Will Troutman, a negro drayman, was also seriously shot at about the same time. Both are said to have been accidental, occasioned by some of the few wild shots fired by members of the mob, with the evident intention of frightening citizens.

At 10 o'clock there was a stir in the mob. It was augmented by fully 500 men who came, it is said, from Whitney. It was but a few minutes after their arrival when fifty, forming a sort of flying wedge, made a break for the jail doors, overpowered the officers and effected an entrance. The great crowd outside rushed in behind the leaders, and in a few minutes more emerged from the door with their victims. The negroes refused to either deny or confess, and were so thoroughly frightened as to have lost the power of speech.

At midnight the ropes were quickly brought forward and adjusted, and the three were strung up to the limbs of one tree, and with howls and curses the crowd riddled the dangling bodies with bullets.

IMMENSE DEFICIT.

Financial Institution at Chicago Owes Nearly One Million Dollars.

Chicago, Aug. 7.—With a deficit in its accounts estimated to reach close to $1,000,000, and with the whereabouts of two of its highest officers unknown to the authorities, the Milwaukee Avenue State bank, one of the largest outlying banks in the city, was closed Monday by State Bank Examiner C. C. Jones.

The failure was responsible for the death of one of the depositors and led to the suicide of another man who, a month ago, had placed his earnings of a lifetime in the institution for safe keeping. In the excitement following the announcement of the failure J. G. Visser, an official of the Royal league, who had on deposit in the bank funds of that organization, fell dead of heart failure.

Harry Koepke, a small grocer, on hearing that the bank had suspended payment, went to the rear of his store and shot himself. He died a few minutes later while being removed to a hospital.

Riotous scenes attended the announcement of the failure, and a large force of police struggled all day to keep an excited crowd of depositors—nearly all of them foreigners, and many of them women—from rushing the doors of the institution. The fact that the bank was on the verge of failure was first revealed by President Stensland, one of the absent officials. A letter to his son, Theodore, who is vice president, written from St. Paul, and received last Saturday, started the investigation which brought about the revelations. Another sensational feature of the affair is the disappearance of Cashier William Henry Herring, and the issuing of a warrant for his arrest on a charge of embezzlement. A message ordering his apprehension was sent to every police station in the city.

TROLLEY LINE COUNTER PROPOSITION

The trolley line committee held a meeting yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock, and Mr. H. O. Boatwright was authorized to write Mr. Edward Kennedy that the committee has twelve thousand dollars in stock subscriptions in sight and is willing to tender same to him provided that he will give bond for the performance of his part of the contract. If this is acceptable to him he is further requested to come to Bryan and locate specifically the land he wants for terminals. These are the main features of the committee's counter proposition, which leaves the trolley line proposition in Mr. Kennedy's hands, and his decision is awaited with interest.

In the event this proposition for a trolley line is not carried out, the Eagle learns that New York parties are interested in the proposed line and watching developments, and that something may result from this in the future. This has, however, had no attention from the local committee, all negotiations being centered in Mr. Kennedy's proposition, which it is hoped will be successful.

I will be in Houston Wednesday and will give careful personal attention to all orders given me. Mrs. Mary Lawrence. d8t

NEGRO KILLED NEAR NELLEVA

For Money—Was Slashed With Knives and Six Negroes Have Been Arrested.

Navasota, Texas, August 6.—A strange negro, named John Williams was found dead in a road near NELLEVA. He had been working on the Central cutoff and is reported to have had considerable money when last seen alive. It was very plain that he had been set upon and killed with knives. Six other negroes have been arrested on suspicion.—Galveston News.

Another account says: Navasota, Texas, August 6.—A negro named John Williams was found dead in the public road this morning near NELLEVA. It was plainly apparent that he had been stabbed to death.

Deceased was a strange negro working on the Central cutoff. He had been gambling and was a heavy winner Saturday night and Sunday.—Houston Post.

The six negroes above referred to were arrested by Sheriff Nall Monday afternoon and brought to Bryan and lodged in jail yesterday morning at an early hour. An examining trial was held before Justice W. G. Mitchell yesterday morning after which four of the negroes were released from custody and two of them were remanded to jail without bail. The two negroes thus implicated gave their names as Lonnie Balton and Henry Brush, and live in the Greer's Bend neighborhood in the lower end of Brazos county. Sheriff Nall informs the Eagle that Brush made a statement which was reduced to writing at the examining trial, admitting his own guilt and implicating the other negro; also that Belton, after being warned, made practically the same statement to him (Sheriff Nall) and to County Attorney Nagle at the jail. From these statements it appears that the motive of the alleged crime was robbery, but the negroes claim that only eighty cents was obtained from the victim. The killing appears to have been a particularly atrocious one, it being claimed that the negro had his throat cut while lying on the ground, the same knife being used by both his assailants. The dead negroes name is said to be John or Jerry Wilson instead of Williams.

Italian Catholic Church Severely Damaged During Rain Storm Yesterday Morning.

During the rain storm yesterday morning about 11 o'clock lightning struck the spire of the Italian Catholic church in this city tearing the shingles all off one side of the cupola and scattering them over the yard and adjacent street. The bolt then passed downward, wrecking a gable in the front of the church north of the tower, shattering one of the large end windows, breaking glass out of some others and finally killing the horse of the priest, Rev. Milletello. The animal was in the yard immediately in front of the wrecked window. There was also slight damage to the interior of the church. The lightning shocked the people in the neighborhood for more than a block around considerably and one negro boy who was in a near by kitchen claims that he was knocked from a chair.

TURBULENT TIME.

Pugnacious Scenes Mark Beginning of Union Teamsters' Convention.

Chicago, Aug. 7.—The fourth annual convention of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters began here in a bewilderment of electioneering for the presidency, and so bitter did the feeling grow between the different factions that it was necessary to call the police to maintain order. The contending factions are headed by President Shea, who is seeking re-election, and Albert Young, former president. Thomas Martin, one of the leaders of the New York delegation, who is opposed to Shea, in an altercation at the door of the convention hall with some of Shea's followers, was beaten into insensibility. When the police arrived one of Shea's adherents sat astride on his chest beating him in the face with both fists.

John Buckley of Boston, an admirer of Shea, a few minutes after the Martin fight, became too eloquent in his advocacy of Shea to suit some of Young's friends and another fight was on in a minute. The police were on the alert, however, and before much damage could be done the belligerents were separated.

Over Twenty Persons Succumbed at Greater New York to Heat.

New York, Aug. 7.—New York and its environs sweltered Monday and far into the night, for it was the hottest day of the year. Upwards of twenty persons in the city alone died from the heat, and the hospital and police ambulances were kept more than busy, so numerous were the cases of prostration.

The government thermometer registered 92 degrees at its highest in the afternoon, which is a new record for the year.

Madisonville, Ky., Aug. 7.—There is great excitement here over the arrest of Joe Quizenberry, a negro, charged with criminally assaulting Miss Myrtle Fugate of the Free Henry Ford neighborhood a few nights ago. The officers believe they have the right negro under arrest, and Miss Fugate will come here to identify him. If the young woman says he is the guilty negro a lynching will probably occur.

The first demand is for a department of agriculture, separate and distinct from all other branches of the state government.

The second calls for the installation of a system of industrial instruction in the public schools and to extend the work of the technical and industrial institutions of the state. State Superintendent of Public Instruction Cousins, who was present, expressed himself in thorough accord with this movement.

VISIT TO URUGUAY.

Belief Is Expressed That Secretary Root Will Be Well Treated.

Washington, Aug. 7.—Despite the unfriendly disposition which students of Montevideo have shown recently toward the United States and its policies as outlined by Secretary Root in his address before the Panamerican conference at Rio de Janeiro, diplomats express the belief that unfriendliness will not be displayed in any way during Mr. Root's approaching visit to the Uruguayan capital. Upon his return to Santos, Brazil, from San Paulo, Mr. Root will sail directly to Montevideo, where he will remain for several days and be entertained by the Uruguayan government. The attitude of students mentioned is said here to have been inspired by opponents of present administration in Uruguay.

TRAGEDY IN CHURCH.

Aged Negro Shot to Death and a Boy Severely Wounded.

Kaufman, Tex., Aug. 7.—A large congregation assembled at the negro church Sunday night at Spikes Prairie, eleven miles southeast of here, and the minister was delivering his discourse when two angry negroes began shooting at each other in the church house with six-shooters. After five or six shots had been fired both jumped out of the windows and ran off.

After the confusion was over it was found that one of the shots had killed Ben Noble, a good old darkey, and another shot had severely wounded a negro boy, Will Burley, in the shoulder. Dave Welsh surrendered.

BADLY BEATEN.

Witness Against Negroes Taken Into the Woods to Die.

Tulsa, I. T., Aug. 7.—The lynching of the three negroes, Jackson, Murray and Howell, charged with the outrage and murder of Harry Priestler, a boy, was probably averted Monday by officers hurrying the prisoners to the Federal jail at Muskogee. Developments proved that the negroes killed the boy with a bone of a horse's leg. Eugene McQueen, prosecuting witness, was caught by a mob of negroes west of Tulsa Sunday, beaten into insensibility and taken into the woods west of Sapulpa, where he was left to die.

SCOFIELD SUICIDES.

Late General's Son Feared He Would Become Burden to Wife.

San Francisco, Aug. 7.—Major Scofield of the regular army, son of the late Lieutenant General Scofield, shot and killed himself in this city Monday. Major Scofield was on a leave of absence on account of ill health. In explanation of the suicide it is said that he feared an attack of locomotor ataxia, and that he would become a burden to his wife.

Inclined to the Pathetic.

Pittsburg, Aug. 7.—In arguments in Hartje case Monday both parties got severe scoring from attorneys. In his plea for Mrs. Hartje Attorney Acheson inclined well to the pathetic side of the case, Mrs. Hartje being moved to tears.

clude, besides Mrs. Catt, Miss Hay, Rev. Anna Shaw, Mrs. Rachael Foster Avery, Miss Lucy J. Anthony and Mrs. Ida Husted Harper. The hall selected for the meeting place proved too small to accommodate the delegates and the convention adjourned to a larger one. The addresses of welcome were presented by women societies of Denmark, to which Mrs. Catt replied on behalf of the conference.

GENERAL STRIKE ENDS.

It Was Decided to Call Same Off on Wednesday.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 7.—It was decided to call off Wednesday the general strike. More than half the factories resumed work Tuesday morning and while the employees of some establishments at Moscow are still out none of the predictions of the extreme parties who organized the strike movement have been fulfilled. Many trades unions totally refused to join in it, railroad men, whose co-operation was vital, could not be induced to give the signal for a strike owing to the fear that the majority of the men would not obey, and there was no sign of a serious peasant movement. While repressions and arrests of the leaders undoubtedly were great factors in bringing about the present situation, it is apparent the moment was ill chosen for a strike. People are not in the temper to support it. As a consequence revolutionary leaders, who really inspired it with the intention of transforming the movement into an armed uprising, have suffered a severe loss of prestige, and the proletarian organizations through which they worked have been so weakened in the eyes of the masses that it is probable they will not quickly recover. The government, which was prepared for the worst, and holding military trains in readiness at all centers, and had even made arrangements to send out foreign mails by torpedo boats from St. Petersburg, is naturally greatly rejoiced over the victory. There is nothing more than local echoes of all this fever.

A state of terrorism is expected in the immediate future. Leaders of non-revolutionary parties do not conceal their satisfaction at the defeat of their old allies, the Extreme Left, as they feared a great strike with widespread disorders, entailing repressions, might be used as a justification by the government to postpone elections and assembling of new parliament. With comparative tranquility ahead they can hold the government to its promises, and with political activity turned into peaceful channels. Constitutional Democrats of more conservative type hope to regain the prestige they lost during the sessions of parliament, while the new party of peaceful regeneration is hopeful of a general reaction from radicalism, which will create a more sane and health the state of opinion.
